

VEL C.

I TELL STORIES THROUGH TECHNO

Vel C. is a Belgrade-based techno producer and DJ whose music is driven by tension, emotion, and intentional narrative. Rooted in high-energy hard techno and shaped by acid, trance, and psytrance influences, his production confronts and reflects on personal and societal themes.

Vel C. delivers high-energy sets built on constant momentum and emotionally controlled peaks. Playing at high BPM, he shortens and edits material to maintain pressure on the floor, using emotional moments selectively. His sets are fast, varied, and designed for long-form dancefloor engagement.
